

Trade Theory: Draughtsman Civil

Government ITI Trades Portal

Category: Civil

Duration: 2 years

Eligibility: 10th class pass

Description

A Draughtsman Civil is trained to make technical drawings of buildings, roads, bridges, and dams using both hand drawing and computer software. The trainee assists civil engineers by preparing site plans, building maps, and 3D models.

Core Syllabus and Curriculum

1st Year

- Engineering Drawing: lines, lettering, scales, geometric construction
- Building Materials: bricks, cement, steel, concrete basics
- AutoCAD 2D: basic commands, floor plan, table, levelling

2nd Year

- Building construction: foundation, wall, roofs, RCC work
- Estimating and costing: calculate material and labour cost of building
- AutoCAD 3D and Revit: 3D building models, BIM basics
- Road, railway, and bridge: basic drawings and components

Apprenticeship Opportunities

Government Companies / Organizations

- PWD Public Works Department

Private Companies

- Construction companies

Job Opportunities

Government Jobs

- PWD
- Irrigation Department
- CPWD
- Municipal corporation
- Railways

Self Employment

- Own CAD center
- Building plan approvals
- Survey work

Higher Studies

- CITS: become ITI instructor
- Diploma in Civil: lateral entry to 2nd year
- B.Tech Civil: after diploma

Salary Range

Fresher: Rs. 12,000-18,000/month private; Government job: Rs. 25,000-35,000/month plus allowance; Experienced/licensed: Rs. 50,000+/month