

Trade Theory: Dress Making

Government ITI Trades Portal

Category: Fashion

Duration: 1 year

Eligibility: 8th pass or 10th class pass

Description

A Dress Maker in ITI is trained in designing, cutting, stitching, and finishing garments for men, women, and children. Students learn pattern making, machine operation, and fashion basics.

Core Syllabus and Curriculum

Core syllabus and curriculum

- Domain-specific theory and practical sessions
- Core employability skills
- Hand tools and sewing machine parts
- Basic stitches
- Body measurement
- Salwar kameez, shirts, trousers, and kids wear
- Surface ornamentation basics
- Fashion sketching and costing

Apprenticeship Opportunities

Government / Public Sector

- Textile Department
- KVIC / Handloom Board
- Anganwadi / Schools

Private Sector

- Garment factories
- Boutiques
- Export houses

Job Opportunities

Central / State Government Jobs

- Textile Department: instructor, designer
- KVIC / Handloom Board: technical assistant
- Anganwadi / Schools: vocational trainer

Private Sector

- Garment factories: cutting master, quality checker, tailor
- Boutiques: designer, master cutter
- Export houses: sampling tailor

Self Employment

- Freelance designer: wedding dresses, uniforms
- Home-based business: stitching for neighbors, online orders
- Training center: teach stitching to others

Higher Studies

- CITS: become ITI instructor in Dress Making

- Diploma in Fashion Design: lateral entry options
- Advanced courses: CAD for pattern making, boutique management

Salary Range

Fresher: Rs. 10,000-15,000/month; Factory/Boutique: Rs. 18,000-35,000/month; Own boutique: Rs. 25,000-80,000/month depending on orders